1. INTRODUCTION

The State of Hawaii, Department of Land and Natural Resources (Department) is pleased to announce a request for reimbursements of due diligence costs for eligible conservation easement projects that further the goals, objectives, and purpose of the Hawaii Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program (CREP). Due diligence costs may include, but are not limited to, costs associated with baseline documentation reports, Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment, appraisals, mineral rights reports, surveys, mapping, and title reports, among others. The request for reimbursement is open to all qualified entities, and evaluation and selection will be based on comparative evaluation criteria. Multiple awards may be made under this request; all awards are subject to availability of funds. The Department's Division of Forestry and Wildlife (DOFAW) will evaluate all submitted reimbursement proposals and manage any of those selected for award. Copies of this request are available at 1151 Punchbowl Street Room 325, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813 or by contacting Irene Sprecher at melissa.i.sprecher@hawaii.gov

2. CANCELLATION

This request may be cancelled and any or all proposals rejected in whole or in part, without liability, when it is determined to be in the best interest of the State.

3. HAWAII CONSERVATION RESERVE ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

The Hawaii CREP is a 20-year incentive program administrated by the State of Hawaii and the US Department of Agriculture's Farm Service Agency (FSA) and Natural Resource Conservation Service (NRCS). The program encourages farmers and ranchers to voluntarily remove targeted lands from agricultural production and enact watershed conservation practices for the purpose/objective of increasing groundwater recharge, restoring native habitat, controlling the spread of invasive species, enhancing stream water quality, reducing coral reef degradation and enhancing near shore coastal waters. Eligible lands for the Hawaii CREP include agriculturally productive lands on the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Molokai, Lanai, Oahu, and Kauai. Under Hawaii CREP Agreement, funds may be available to assist with conservation easements in CREP eligible areas that further the goals and objectives of the program. More information on Hawaii CREP is available at www.hawaii.gov/dlnr/dofaw/crep.

4. SCOPE OF WORK

The Department's principal objective for this request is to further the Hawaii CREP goals and objectives through the establishment of conservation easements on eligible lands. The Hawaii CREP's primary purpose is to support the restoration of degraded agricultural lands. Under this program, the Department may provide funding support for eligible conservation easement acquisitions or donations that further the goals, objectives, and purpose of the program. Thus the Department has directed funding to assist with due diligence costs associated with conservation easements on CREP eligible areas that have closed or are likely to close during this state fiscal year, FY10 (July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010). Eligible due diligence costs may include, but is not limited to, costs associated with baseline documentation reports, Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment, Appraisals, mineral rights reports, surveys, mapping, title reports, among others. Costs associated with due diligence are eligible for reimbursement under Hawaii CREP provided that an eligible entity or landowner, as detailed in Section 5, purchased or originally funded the procurement of such matters. The awarded applicant(s) are required to submit a copy of the due diligence materials that are requested for reimbursement. Conservation easements must be compatible with Hawaii CREP goals, objectives, and purpose including the promotion of conservation and restoration of degraded agricultural lands that will in turn improve water quality and quantity; expand threatened, endangered, and rare species habitat; increase groundwater recharge; restore native species habitat; control invasive species; and improve near shore coral reef health and diversity.

7. SELECTION PROCESS AND COMPARABLE EVALUATION CRITERIA

This section describes the selection process and outlines the criteria to be used in the selection process.

- 7.1 Evaluation Committee. An Evaluation Committee will make all decisions regarding the evaluation, the acceptability of requests for comparative evaluation, and the selection of request proposal(s), if any. The Evaluation Committee may be assisted by other parties that are involved in the Hawaii CREP including representatives from FSA, NRCS, or other officers, employees, and agents of the State.
- 7.2 Opening of Proposals and Confidentiality of the Evaluation Process. Proposals will not be publicly opened. Only the members of the Evaluation Committee or State Personnel having legitimate interest in this procurement will be provided access to the proposals and evaluation results during the evaluation period. All proposals, evaluation worksheet and subsequent Best and Final Offer, if any, and including documentation, correspondence and meetings, will be kept confidential until after the award. All proposals will be made public only after the review and selection process is completed.
- 7.3 COMPARATIVE EVALUATION CRITERIA. The criteria to be used in the comparative evaluation process and the relative weight/significance assigned to each criteria is detailed below. Each proposal request will be evaluated in relation to its conformity with the weighted criteria (totaling 100%). The goal of the comparative evaluation process is to select the “best” proposal(s) based on a set of defined criteria. The criteria to be used in the comparative evaluation process are divided into five groups:
  - 7.3.1 Conservation Easement Project. The conservation easement project’s relevance to Hawaii CREP, including the goals, objectives, and purpose of the program. (weight: 40%)
  - 7.3.2 Location. The land under the conservation easement is within Hawaii CREP eligible area and the land may be further eligible for enrollment into additional components of Hawaii CREP. (weight 35%)
  - 7.3.3 Conservation Easement Terms. The conservation easement restrictions and protection afforded by the easement. (weight 15%)
  - 7.3.4 Easement Status. The status of the conservation easement; i.e.: whether or not the easement acquisition is closed and/or the projected date that the easement acquisition will close. (weight 5%)
  - 7.3.5 Total Cost. The total cost per acre of the conservation easement including both acquisition funding, if any, and associated due diligence costs. (weight 5%)

- 7.4 Compliance with Minimum Criteria. Proposals will be reviewed for conformity with the instructions and requirements of this request for reimbursement. Those request proposals meeting the minimum criteria will be eligible for a priority list for funding. Discussions may be held with “priority-listed” applicants. The objective of these discussions is to clarify issues regarding the applicant’s proposal and reimbursement request.
- 7.5 Acceptance/Rejection of Proposals. The State reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to undertake discussions with one or more applicants, and to accept that proposal or a modified proposal which, in its judgment, will be most advantageous to the State and the selection criteria considered. The State also reserves the right to waive any defects or accept all or portion of any proposal.
- 7.6 Method of Award. The Evaluation Committee will review all proposals that meet the minimum eligibility criteria listed in Section 5 and 6 rank them according to the comparative evaluation criteria, as detailed in Section 7.3. The Evaluation Committee will then enter into discussions with the applicant(s) to verify and clarify said proposal(s) and to discuss the final terms and reimbursement for approval. The Evaluation Committee may award, if any, one or more proposals at the end of the evaluation period.
- 7.7 Notification. All applicants will be notified of award determinations via U.S. Postal Service. If receiving an award letter, please note that this letter does NOT constitute a release of funds. Once a contract is executed, DOFAW will issue a Notice to Proceed.
- 7.8 Proprietary Information. If proprietary data or information is included in the proposals, please identify appropriate sections with a label stating “Proprietary Information.” Unless otherwise identified as “Proprietary Information,” please note that your proposal and contract become public documents and are available for public inspection once awards are posted. Additionally, all photos developed/used/submitted for this request for reimbursement become property of DOFAW.
